—Globe and Mail, Dennis Robinso

COULD BE A RECORD

There are 1,512 people sitting on each other's knees in this attempt to establish a record for a self-supporting circle yesterday. Students of Westview Centennial Secondary School were trying to top a mark of 1,410 set by a New Zealand group. The circle was formed in the school's football field which is located in the Jane-Finch district of Metro Toronto